ITALIAN DRIVE IS SLOWED UP

Yugoslavian Border Sources Say Civilian Population of Koritza, Important City in Conquered Territory, Withdrawing as Artillery Fires From Newly-Won Positions; Rome High Command Reports Progress Despite Bad Weather and Bogging Roads; Troop Concentrations Bombed

BERLIN ANNOUNCES OVER 1,500 SHELLS ARE DUMPED OVER LONDON IN OVERNIGHT ASSAULT

Italy's invasion machine was reported in Greek quarters to have stalled all along the snow-clogged mountain front in the 9-day-old war with Greece today.

Defenders of the little Hellenic kingdom had cut off 4,000 Fascist troops behind the lines, Greek dispatches said, and trapped 20,000 other Italian soldiers in the siege of Koritza, key supply base in Italian-conquered Albania.

Greek heavy artillery, firing from heights seized in fierce bayonet charges, was reported shelling the encircled city. Yugo-Slavian dispatches said the civilian population was withdrawing.

The Greeks were also said to have captured the Albanian town of Bigista, 3 miles northwest of the frontier, on the road to Koritza.

In the face of these Greek-claimed successes, Premier Mussolini's high command asserted that, despite bad weather, bogging roads and slowing the attack, the two main thrusts toward Philomina and Ioannina (Jannina) were still showing progress.

"The movement of our units is continuing in the Epirus (Ioannina) sector, where our troops, overcoming lively resistance, have reached the headwaters of the Vojussa river," the Fascist High Command said.

The Vojussa river rises in the rugged Pindus mountain range in northwest Greece, just north of Metsovo and about 35 miles from the Greek-Albanian frontier. Metsovo is 15 miles north east of Ioannina, the immediate objective of the Italian drive in the west.

Italian dive-bombers repeatedly attacked Greek mountain batteries north of Ioannina, the Italian communiqué said, while other Fascist air squadrons bombed the Preveza naval base, on the Greek west coast, and the port of Volos, on the east coast.

Greece's High Command said Greek warplanes bombed and machine-gunned Italian tanks and troop concentrations, with a loss of only one Greek plane against five Italian planes shot down.

In the increasing aerial sieging of Britain, Nazi warplanes flying in continuous waves over the British capital were said by the German High Command to have dumped more than 1,500 bombs on (Turn to Page Nine)

WAR REPORT TO COMMONS MADE BY CHURCHILL

London, Nov. 5.—(P.)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill warned the House of Commons today that they now have more to fear from the mounting depredations of U-boats than the constant German air raids.

Before Commons, he promised "we shall do our best" to help Italian-invaded Greece from air and naval bases newly established in Crete. But, he said, Britain must not forget that she must fight "the campaigns of 1943 and 1944."

The prime minister declared frankly that the navy, in fighting the challenge of the submarine, was under "a grievous burden" in being barred from neutral Irish ports.

His unveiled concern over submarines reflected the loss of three great liners in a little more than a week—Canada's Empress of Britain and the British armed merchant cruisers Laurence and Patroclus, plus thousands of tons in smaller ships.

Much of the German U-boat activity has been off Ireland.

The nation's air raid dead he placed at 14,000 civilians and less than 200 soldiers.

The prime minister called the ratio of one British casualty to each 20 Italians in North Africa "a good augury for the greater battles which certainly will develop, if not (Turn to Page Nine)

ELECTION ARGUMENT RESULTS IN SHOOTING

Indiana, Pa., Nov. 5.—(P.)—An argument over the merits of the presidential candidates in today's election ended last night in the shooting of Pete Muzininsky, 25, at Dilltown, Indiana county.

State Motor Patrolman E. M. Hoffman reported that Muzininsky's opponent in the argument had been taken into custody without charge, pending the outcome of the shooting victim's condition.

A blast from a shotgun struck Muzininsky in the left thigh and Hoffman said there was a possibility his leg might be amputated. He was a patient in a Johnstown hospital.

Cold Weather Strikes Unheated France As Plans Are Announced for Rationing of Coal

By ROY P. PORTER

Associated Press Foreign Writer

Paris (via Berlin, delayed), Oct. 30. (P.)—Cold weather struck unheated France this week.

With coal supplies almost exhausted and most office buildings and public establishments without heat, Parisians shivered and donned more clothing.

Electric radiators, virtually the only heating facilities available, were at a premium.

Coal for November will be parceled out in pound lots, instead of tons. The amount of coal allowed will depend upon the number of persons in a family or office.

The following provisional coal rations have been established for November:

Families of one through three persons, 110 pounds.

Families of four through five persons, 165 pounds.

Families of six through seven persons, 265 pounds.

Families of eight through nine persons, 320 pounds.

Families above nine persons, 430 pounds.

The government has urged families to conserve fuel by closing off most of their houses and gathering in one or two rooms to make full use of the coal for heating and cooking.

Straws In Election Winds to Watch When Returns Start Coming In Tonight

By The Associated Press

Straws in the election winds to watch tonight: New York—It's usually on the winner's side. Its loss by Willkie would be dangerous. Roosevelt could get by without it. Three times since the Civil War its electoral vote went to the loser, the last time in 1916, when it voted for Hughes and Wilson won.

Pennsylvania—Another state Willkie cannot well afford to lose. A Roosevelt majority here would spell almost certain victory. The state has voted Democratic in a presidential race only once since the Civil War—four years ago when it swung to Roosevelt.

Maryland—Its vote has been in the winner's column in every presidential race since 1888.

California—A Willkie victory here would upset strong Democratic hopes and indicate a possible Republican victory.

Ohio and North Dakota—Have hit the winner ever since 1892.

Kansas and Wyoming—On the winner's side since 1896.

Idaho and Missouri—Haven't missed since 1900.

For Third Time in Six Years Workers Prepare to Take From Canyon-Bound Fastness of Utah's Mountains Bodies of Airline Travelers

ALL ARE FOUND DEAD

By ASAHIEL BUSH

Salt Lake City, Nov. 5.—(P.)—For the third time in six years, workers today brought from the canyon-bound fastness of Utah's Wasatch mountains the bodies of airline travelers.

Ten men and women—seven passengers and a crew of three—died early yesterday as a big, bi-motor United Air Lines transport struck against the mountainside 13 miles northeast of here and was destroyed.

Eastbound from San Francisco, the huge plane circled through a furious storm in an attempt to "line up" the Salt Lake City airport and land. Instead, it smashed into the 25-degree slope of the Wasatch mountains which rise 7,000 feet from the valley floor.

Force of the collision piled seven passengers and the stewardess in a fantastic, twisted heap at the front of the cabin, and broke the plane almost in half.

The pilots, Captain Howard Fey of Oakland, Calif., and First Officer Thomas E. Sandegren of Tacoma, Wash., were catapulted from the cabin and tossed into the snow, 20 feet ahead of the severed nose of the plane.

A pack train, moving cautiously along a twisting trail, brought the bodies to Salt Lake City.

Since 1934 three transport planes have crashed into the Wasatch mountains, all within close range of Salt Lake city and with a total death list, including yesterday's of 27.

UNPRECEDENTED NUMBER OUT IN EASTERN STATES

By The Associated Press

New York, Nov. 5.—This unprecedented presidential election and generally fair weather lured eastern voters to the polls early today in apparently unprecedented numbers.

The weather—sunny and warm in most of the eastern states—seemed significant, especially in New York where the largest voting lines in history were balloting rapidly to determine the final disposition of the state's eagerly sought bloc of 47 electoral votes.

Crucial Pennsylvania, its 36 electoral votes a signally important bloc, also reported signs of what may be the heaviest voter turnout in history. Straight ticket voting was indicated there as the electorate generally made their choices at the rate of one a minute.

Lancaster, Ky., Nov. 5.—(P.)—Billy Turner, who's for Willkie, and Eugene Rankin, for Roosevelt, have one of those election bets:

FEW IN CABINET VOTE AT HOME

Washington, Nov. 5.—(P.)—Cabinet members with homes in New York traveled there to vote today, but most of the others in President Roosevelt's official family cast absentee ballots.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Hull mailed their ballots to Smith county, Tennessee.

Secretary of the Interior Ickes mailed his ballot to Chicago and Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Jones sent theirs to Houston, Tex.

SNOW IN MINNESOTA

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—(P.)—Cold weather, spattered by rain and occasional snow flurries, covered Minnesota as the polls opened at 7 a. m. today, but early reports bore out predictions of a vote that may be the heaviest in the state's history.

SENATORIAL CONTEST SHARES THE SPOTLIGHT

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—(P.)—All signs pointed to a record-breaking vote in Pennsylvania today, with the state's 35 electoral votes a major stake in the spirited presidential contest between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Wendell L. Willkie.

Skies cleared in many sections after a gray dawn, and voters turned out early in numbers indicative of the heaviest balloting in history.

In numerous communities lines formed before polling places opened at 7 a. m. and within two hours thousands had registered their decisions.

Early balloting in Philadelphia, where one-fifth of the state's 5,000,000 eligible voters are registered, was heavier than in any previous election. In some districts, as many as one-fourth of the eligibles cast their ballots within the first hour. Lines half a block long formed at polling booths in heavily-populated south Philadelphia.

Reports of heavy voting also came from Pittsburgh and the western counties, where a prediction of rain this afternoon sped the early turnout.

A similar situation prevailed in Harrisburg, with voting places crowded at the outset. Skies were clear and temperatures mild there and throughout eastern Pennsylvania.

Second in importance only to the momentous presidential contest was U. S. Senator Joseph P. (Turn to Page Nine)

CALLS CAUSE SACRED

By DOUGLAS E. CORNELL

Hyde Park, N. Y., Nov. 5.—(P.)—President Roosevelt waited, "in full confidence of vindication of the principles and policies on which we have fought the campaign," for the votes of the people to determine today whether they would retain his leadership for a presidential-smashing third term.

Whatever the outcome of the election might be, he told the nation in an election eve broadcast that "after the ballots are counted, the United States of America will stay united."

Mr. Roosevelt decided to cast his own ballot shortly after noon in the town hall where his family has exercised the right of the franchise for decades.

That right is "the most powerful safeguard of our democracy," he said.

"The right to place men in office, at definite fixed dates of election, for a specific term, is the right which will keep a free people always free."

The president mentioned vindication of campaign policies and principles in a statement he issued last night. Thanking those who had worked for Democratic nominees.

The president closed his campaign without mentioning Wendell L. Willkie by name in a single major or minor address.

Nominees Are Both Cheered When They Appear at the Polls

Hyde Park, N. Y., Nov. 5.—(P.)—President Roosevelt cast his vote at 12:20 p. m. (EST) today in the white frame town hall of Hyde Park village.

As the 292nd voter in his election district, he spent exactly 65 seconds behind the green curtains of the booth.

His 56-year-old mother, Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, and his wife, who gave her name as Anna E. Roosevelt, voted a few minutes later.

It looked like a movie studio when Mr. Roosevelt entered the hall. Batteries of cameras and lights cluttered the place.

New York, Nov. 5.—(P.)—Wendell L. Willkie cast his ballot at public school 6, Madison avenue at 95th street, at 9:42 a. m. (EST) today.

Asked by a radio announcer how he was going to vote, he replied: "Straight Republican." In reply to a question by an election clerk, he gave his occupation as "lawyer."

He went into the voting booth to the cheers of a crowd of several hundred persons. Mrs. Willkie had preceded him.

The Republican presidential candidate wanted to go to the end of the line and wait his turn, but the crowd shouted that he should vote immediately.

Willkie was in the voting booth less than a minute.

ALLEGHENY ENDS HARD CAMPAIGN

Pittsburgh, Nov. 5.—Cloudy skies with some prospects of rain later sent western Pennsylvanians trooping to the polls early and in large numbers today.

Democratic and Republican leaders, both claiming victory after topping off hard-driving campaigns with a series of last-minute rallies, apparently were agreed upon but one thing—the turnout would be the heaviest ever.

Band of Rain Moves Eastward Across Some of the Central States, Stirring Speculation That Forecasts of a High of Almost 50,000,000 Might Not Be Realized; Willkie Votes Early in District in New York, With President Roosevelt Arranging to Go to Polls During the Afternoon

THIRTY-THREE STATES HAVE GUBERNATORIAL RACES IN ADDITION TO SENATORIAL FIGHTS

By The Associated Press

A band of rainfall moved eastward across some of the central states this election day, stirring speculation that forecasts of a record vote of almost 50,000,000 might not be realized, but reports of lifting rain threats and heavy voting came from other areas.

Wendell L. Willkie, "lawyer," was among the millions who cast his ballot before noon. Entering the polling place at a public school in New York City, he said in response to a question, that he was going to vote "straight Republican."

President Roosevelt arranged to vote later in the day at the white frame town hall in the village of Hyde Park, N. Y.

First returns from the president's electoral college came from New England and the south. First in the nation to record its vote was little Sharon, N. H., which tabulated 24 votes for Willkie and seven for Roosevelt at 12 minutes after midnight (E. S. T.). This compared with the hamlet's 1932 score of 11 for Hoover and one for Roosevelt, and the 1936 record of 13 for Landon and three for Roosevelt.

Among the early reporters, Nuthush, N. C., gave all its 24 registered votes to Mr. Roosevelt.

In the deep south, Alabama's first count of absentee ballots, in Montgomery county, gave the president 600 votes, and the Republican nominee five.

In 1936, Nuthush voted 31 to 0 for President Roosevelt.

Analysis recalled the accepted American election tradition that rainy weather holds down the rural vote without affecting that in urban centers greatly.

BOROUGH TOTAL AT 1:30 BELOW FOUR YEARS AGO

With leaders of both the Republican and Democratic parties putting forth every effort to get out the vote, residents of Warren borough early this afternoon gave indication of a near-record total in today's presidential election, with nearly 3,500 already having cast their ballots by 1:30 o'clock.

While the total was several hundred under that of four years ago, ward leaders indicated that the voting in the late afternoon and early evening would push the totals over those of 1936.

Between 1:00 and 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, when the wards were checked, a total of 3,486 had voted. At the same time in 1936 the total was 4,160, while eight years ago it was 3,232 at that hour.

Closest to reaching the total of four years ago was the second ward, where 269 persons had voted at 1:30, as compared to 250 in 1936.

In the fifth ward, largest in the borough, 829 had voted at 1:30, while in the sixth ward, the total was 554. Only the fourth ward was surprisingly small, only 250 having voted there when the check-up was made.

Following are the figures for the wards of the borough, together with those of 1936 and 1932: (Turn to Page Nine)

EMPIRE STATE POLLS ARE OPEN UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK

By The Associated Press

Last-minute voters in New York state may trek to the polls tonight as late as tomorrow in Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming and some of the midwestern states.

Anticipating a record vote because of big registrations, the Empire State gave its ballots an additional three hours, extending poll closing time from 6 to 9 p. m. (EST). Many of the western states will be closing their voting places simultaneously, although the actual times will be earlier.

Five southern states will close their polls before any others: Georgia at 4 and 7 p. m., Kentucky at 4 and 5 p. m., South Carolina at 4 and 6 p. m., Virginia at sunset (around 5:04 p. m.), and Tennessee 8 p. m. all eastern time. Their own local times will be different. In a majority of cases, the earlier closing times are for the rural areas.

Most states will shut up shop between 6 and 8 p. m., eastern. But Pacific coast voters will still be casting ballots up to 10 and 11 p. m. (EST) in California, and 11 p. m. in Oregon and Washington. In some sections of Rhode Island the polls will not close until 10 p. m., latest of any in the east.

YOUTH IS KILLED IN NEWLY-ACQUIRED SHIP

Masontown, Nov. 5.—(P.)—Tony Michael, 23, son of a miner, achieved his ambition of owning his own airplane yesterday, then crashed to his death on his first flight.

The youth's father, Peter Michael, witnessed the tragedy.

Michael obtained the ship in Masontown, trying it out in West Masontown, he saw he was over-shooting the field and might strike his home.

Witnesses said he gave his plane "the gun" in an attempt to rise, but the motor failed. The ship plunged nose-first into the ground.

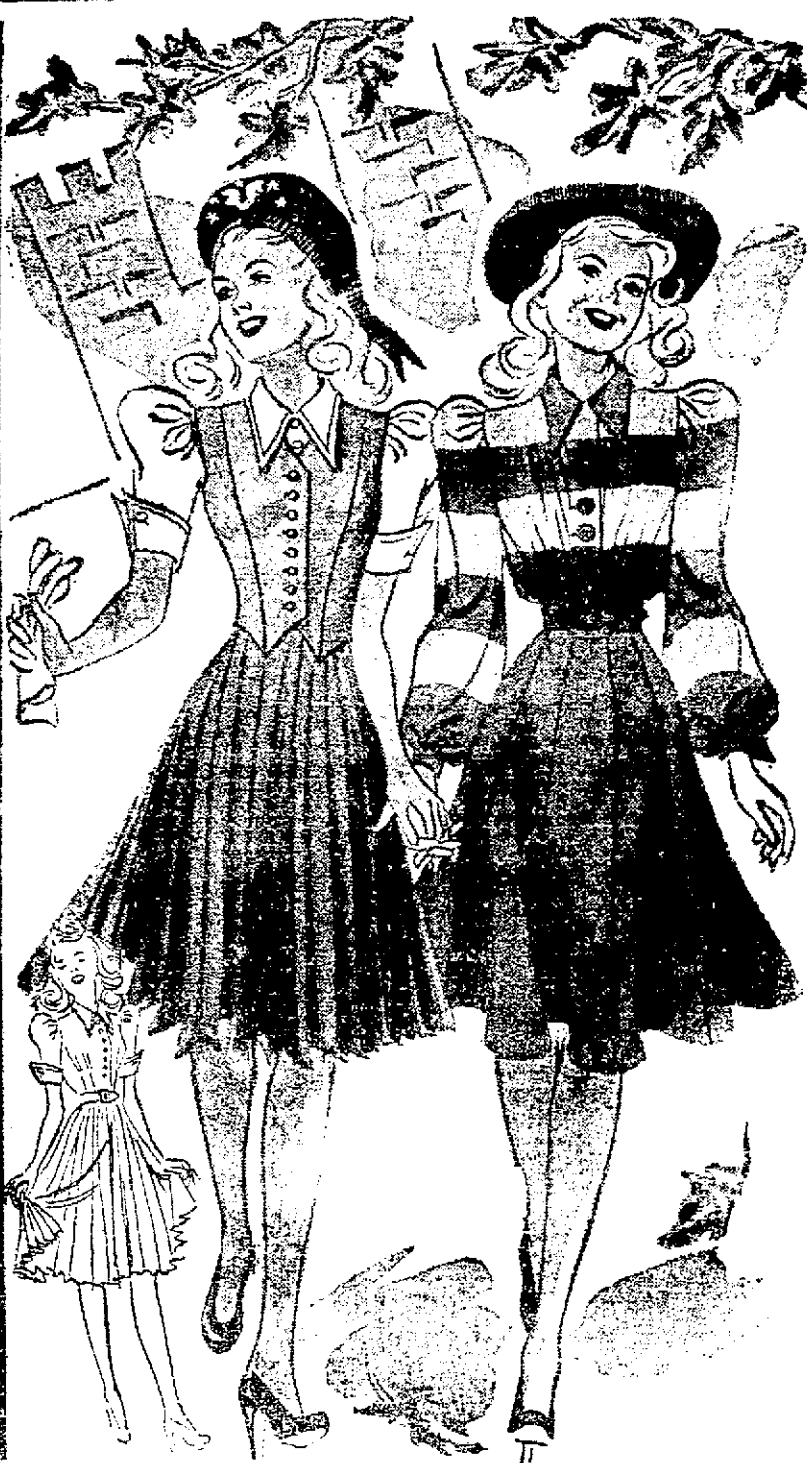

The youth died several hours later in a Uniontown hospital.

Quiet Little Southern New Hampshire Town First in Nation to Report in the Election

Ham Location, N. H., Nov. 5.—(P.)—This town today counted a vote of three for Wendell Willkie and seven to President Roosevelt.

The balloting compared with the 1936 vote of 15 for Alf Landon and three for the president, and the 1932 count of 11 for Herbert Hoover and one for Mr. Roosevelt.

The voting, in the 175-year-old colonial red brick, one-room school house on the pine tree slopes of Temple mountain, began at a minute after midnight—way past the usual bedtime for most of the 60 residents of this town—but they stayed and ate and laughed and the nation to report in the presi- (Turn to Page Nine)

MINISTERS OF WARREN COUNTY PLAN SERVICES

Several items of community interest and importance were taken up at yesterday's meeting of the Warren County Ministerial Association, held at the Y. M. C. A. with 22 in attendance.

These included announcement of arrangements for the union Thanksgiving service, to be held at 10:30 o'clock on Thanksgiving morning in the Bethlehem Congregational church. Rev. John Bengtson, pastor, will be in charge, with Rev. Harold C. Warren, pastor of the First Presbyterian church delivering the sermon. Rev. S. R. Schieb, pastor of the Salem Evangelical church, will offer prayer and Rev. J. C. Wygant, First Evangelical minister, will give the scripture message. The offering for this community service, as in other years, will be given to the Warren Relief Association.

R. W. Reynolds, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. was appointed chairman to arrange for regular religious services for Camp 12, Civilian Conservation Corps, at Sheffield.

The committee for the county on religious education announced a special meeting to be held at the First Methodist church on Saturday, November 23, and the leadership training school committee told of plans for the January and February sessions. Dr. Thomas E. Colley, pastor of the First Methodist church, will be dean of the school and Rev. James A. Davidson, Baptist pastor, will be general chairman.

The program for the day included devotionals by T. F. Eppley, boys' work secretary of the "Y"; review of "Can Christianity Save Civilization?" by Rev. Carl Perrin, of Sugar Grove Presbyterian church; and a paper on the history of Christianity for the period 325 to 587 A. D., by Rev. Emerson Jones, Methodist minister of Clarendon.

At the next regular meeting of the association, members will gather at the Y. W. C. A. at 11 a. m. on November 18, with their wives as guests. The program will include showing of special movies on "Alaska".

TREAT MAYBURG MAN WOUNDED WHILE HUNTING

Accidentally shot while hunting yesterday afternoon, Nick Valesko, 24, of Mayburg, was treated at the Warren General Hospital shortly after four o'clock today. He was discharged after treatment.

Details of the accident were not learned here this afternoon. Valesko was the first person treated at the local hospital for a gunshot wound received in a hunting accident since the small game season opened last Friday.

The first hunting accident reported in the county was on the opening day when Sam Baker, of Columbus, was slightly wounded in the face.

Young Republicans Extend Invitation To Willkie Workers

The following invitation was extended today by members of the Young Republican Clubs of Warren county, who are holding Open House tonight at the Philomel Club:

Tonight, at the Philomel Club, an Open House will be held, by the Young Republican Clubs of Warren county. With the campaign over and the speeches and cheers still ringing on the air, all America is busy with the serious duty of casting free ballots. As the polling places close, from coast to coast, the serious business of counting the votes will begin. Tonight the results will be coming in over the air from all the great broadcasting stations and national networks of radio. The best radio reception available, for all election returns, has been arranged for by the Young Republican Clubs and the results of the voting will be heard tonight at the Philomel Club.

All are invited. Republicans, young and old, members of the Willkie Clubs, Democrats for Willkie, and Willkie workers, all. The election returns will be the main thing, of course, but refreshments and music will also be provided, due to the efforts of many of the generous and hard working Young Republicans.

The intensity of interest in the outcome of this election is such that the sponsors of tonight's Republican Open House believe that a gathering place, where the returns will be heard with friends, refreshments, music and congenial surroundings generally, will be much appreciated by all. The sponsors extend a cordial invitation to all, and urge all who are interested in the Republican cause to drop in and enjoy this Republican Open House, at the Philomel Club, tonight.

OBITUARY

ELMER O. HOLMGREN

(Written for the Times-Mirror)
Elmer O. Holmgren, the only son of Mrs. John Freeman, was born in Newton, July 21, 1890, and died in Los Angeles, Calif., October 28, 1940. When a small boy he moved to Irvine with his parents, where he grew to manhood. He attended the Irvine public school. He was a graduate of the Warren Conservatory of Music. He early in life united with the Irvine Presbyterian church and served in various offices of the church, as trustee, elder and also as Sabbath school superintendent.

During the World War he served in the medical corps of the United States Army. After his discharge from the army in 1919, he opened a piano studio in Dunbar. Later he conducted a piano studio in Cleveland. In 1922 he went to Los Angeles to make his home and, through his musical vocation gained himself many friends who were very shocked at his sudden passing. His death, due to a heart ailment, occurred very suddenly last Monday afternoon.

He leaves to mourn his death his mother and several nieces and nephews. His father and three sisters preceded him in death.

In accordance with his request, he was buried in the Sayville Military Cemetery in Los Angeles. A memorial service was held in the Irvine Presbyterian church for him on November 3.

MRS. SABRA GEORGE

Corydon, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Sabra George, aged 85 years, died early Sunday morning at her home in Corydon after an illness of several months, following her arrival here from Los Angeles in early summer.

Surviving are a son, Robert George, Jr., of Bradford; two granddaughters, Mrs. John Hunsong, of New Mexico, and Mrs. Lowell Johnston, of St. Petersburg, Fla.; a grandson, Robert George, Jr.; three great-grandchildren, two sisters and a brother. Her husband, a daughter and a son preceded her in death.

Sabra Jane George was born in South Valley, N. Y., a daughter of the late Holly and Ruth Hall Wilcox. After her marriage to Robert George, a native of Scotland, she resided in Bradford for many years, later taking up her residence in Los Angeles, Calif., and Corydon.

Keenly interested in politics, Mrs. George was a staunch Democrat all her life and had expressed a desire to live until after this year's election. She possessed great business ability and was a world-wide traveler.

Funeral services are being held in Bradford.

Eight brands of comedy that will please the palates of the most discriminating sense of humor are jelled together in a merry-go-round of fun in Republic's "Hit Parade of 1941," which opens Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Library Theatre.

The antics of such top laugh-makers as Hugh Herbert, Patsy Kelly, Mary Boland, Sterling Holloway, Phil Silvers, Donald McBride, Barnett Parker, and Borrah Minevitch, race through the musical with such a variety of humor that the laughs run a mile a minute. The "woo woo" and inimitable dialogue delivery of comic Hugh Herbert provides a picture full of laughs. But to them are added the gurgly Mary Boland wit, the Patsy Kelly kind that proves one funny face is worth ten lines of dialogue, and he of the crying voice, Sterling Holloway.

Barnett Parker supplies some of the English variety of humor, with Donald McBride offering the sophisticated kind. Phil Silvers, hit "Todel Boy," gives off the laughs with the muggy radio announcer type, and humor of a musical vein comes from Borrah Minevitch and his harmonica rascals. With all the humorists taking the scenes from the picture, there's still a little space left for the capers and serious moments of Frances Langford, Kenny Baker and Ann Miller, who play starring roles.

The Way Votes Were Divided in 1936

By The Associated Press
Here's the way the voters divided their 45,847,117 votes in the presidential election four years ago:
Roosevelt, Democrat, 27,476,673.
Landon, Republican, 16,679,583.
Lemke, Union, 882,479.
Thomas, Socialist, 187,720.
Browder, Communist, 80,159.
Others, 340,503.
The 531 electoral votes were divided: Roosevelt 523; Landon 8.

ASKS FOR LIGHTS

According to a Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg, the Public Utility Commission has received a complaint from the Warren County Motor Club that the grade crossing over the Pennsylvania Railroad on U. S. route 6 at Irvine is dangerous. The local club has asked the commission to direct the P. R. R. to install flashing light signals or other protective device at the crossing.

TOWNSHIP MEETING

Township Club No. 2 will have its regular meeting at 7:30 Thursday evening in the Eagles Hall, preceded by a turkey supper to be served promptly at six o'clock. Those attending are reminded to bring turkeys and bread and butter, the committee to provide coffee, cream and sugar. Following the meeting there will be a dance for the public, getting under way at nine o'clock.

START SPECIAL WEEKLY SERIES AT 1ST BAPTIST

The First Baptist church is presenting a series of Wednesday evening programs on "The Holy Land and Mediterranean Countries Today", starting at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening.

The minister, Rev. James A. Davidson, visited 22 countries and islands around the Mediterranean sea in 1938, just one year before the European war broke out, closing African, Asiatic and European ports to American tourists.

Mr. Davidson carried two cameras on the two-months tour, one a 16-millimeter movie camera with natural color film, and a still camera with natural color film. He snapped many intimate scenes of Arab life in Africa and Asia, including the Holy Land.

The subjects for these evening programs are as follows: November 6, "Flashes of Oriental Color"; November 13, "The Fascinating Land of the Pharaohs"; November 20, "Trails of the Galilean Carpenter"; November 27, "When Roses Bloom in Ajalon"; December 4, "Fading Footprints of an Apostle"; December 11, "Ashes of a Dead Civilization"; December 18, "Still No Room at the Inn".

Rev. Davidson states that this is not a series of travel pictures only, but it is hoped that the scenes, frequented by Jesus and His apostles, will make The Word more intelligible, and the Christian life more challenging.

The First Baptist church opens its doors to all who wish to enjoy these seven interesting evenings.

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Recently I completed a most enjoyable trip through Canada. While I found a country that was seriously at war, I found a people who were neither worried nor panicky. They were working hard and fast in preparation but still taking their bridge seriously.

We entered Canada at Niagara Falls and were treated warmly and courteously by the Canadian officials. Our first stop was at Toronto, where I met some members of the Canadian Bridge League, which is affiliated with the American Contract Bridge League. The subject of conversation on my part was the war, and on their part, what happened at Ashbury Park this year.

While telling stories of famous lands, one of the Canadian boys said he had pulled off an old swindle, one I haven't seen work for a long time. Try it some time. East saw that his hand might not be good enough to stop a game in hearts or spades, but certainly should defeat three no trump. If he bid clubs, the opponents would be warned off the no trump. So he bid one spade, hoping to lure South into no trumps because of strong spade stoppers.

That was exactly what happened. West duly opened a spade against three no trumps. East won with the ace and laid down five club tricks.

LOCAL PLAYERS IN MCKENNEY COLUMN FOR WEEK'S SERIES

Readers who have been following the McKenney bridge articles appearing in the Times-Mirror, will be particularly interested in this week's series, since it is written mostly about local players. FAMED MAGICIAN GIVES PROGRAM HERE THURSDAY

Dr. Harlan Tarbell, internationally famous magician and teacher of magicians, who will present "Show Us Miracles" at the Woman's Club on Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock, is acclaimed one of the greatest personalities in magic today.

His knowledge of mystery, his insight into human nature, and his sense of humor are almost uncanny. Those privileged to have seen him declare that "he has you in deep philosophy one moment and in a roar of laughter the next".

Tarbell likes Oriental music and he is happy in bringing the classics of India, China, Japan, Egypt, Persia and Bali to Warren as an important adjunct to his program of mystery. These mysteries, combined with his amazing "Eyeless Vision", are, as John Cogswell of the Boston Post says, "well calculated to send anyone into gibbering convulsion fits".

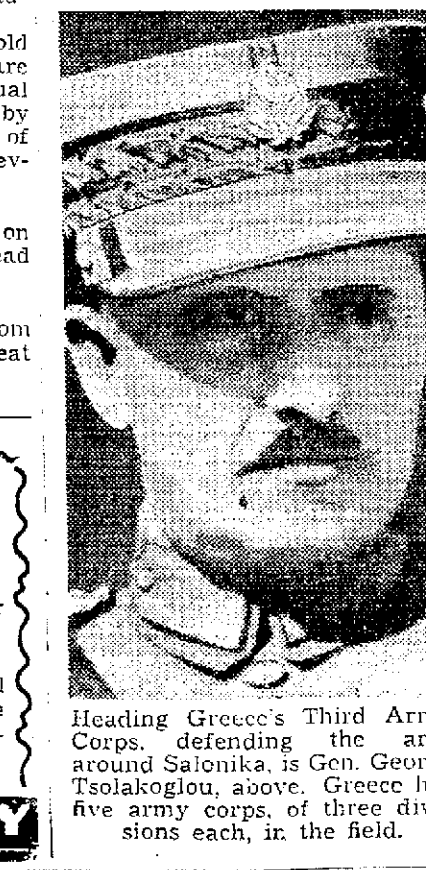

With eyes securely sealed with many layers of adhesive tape and then heavily blindfolded, Dr. Tarbell not only recognizes instantly the shapes, colors and textures of various objects but can describe them in detail; actually reads newspapers, magazines, cards and letters, many times with the reading side turned away from him.

Advance sale of tickets to old and young is proof that many are taking advantage of the unusual opportunity being offered them by the Entertainment Committee of the Woman's Club on Thursday evening.

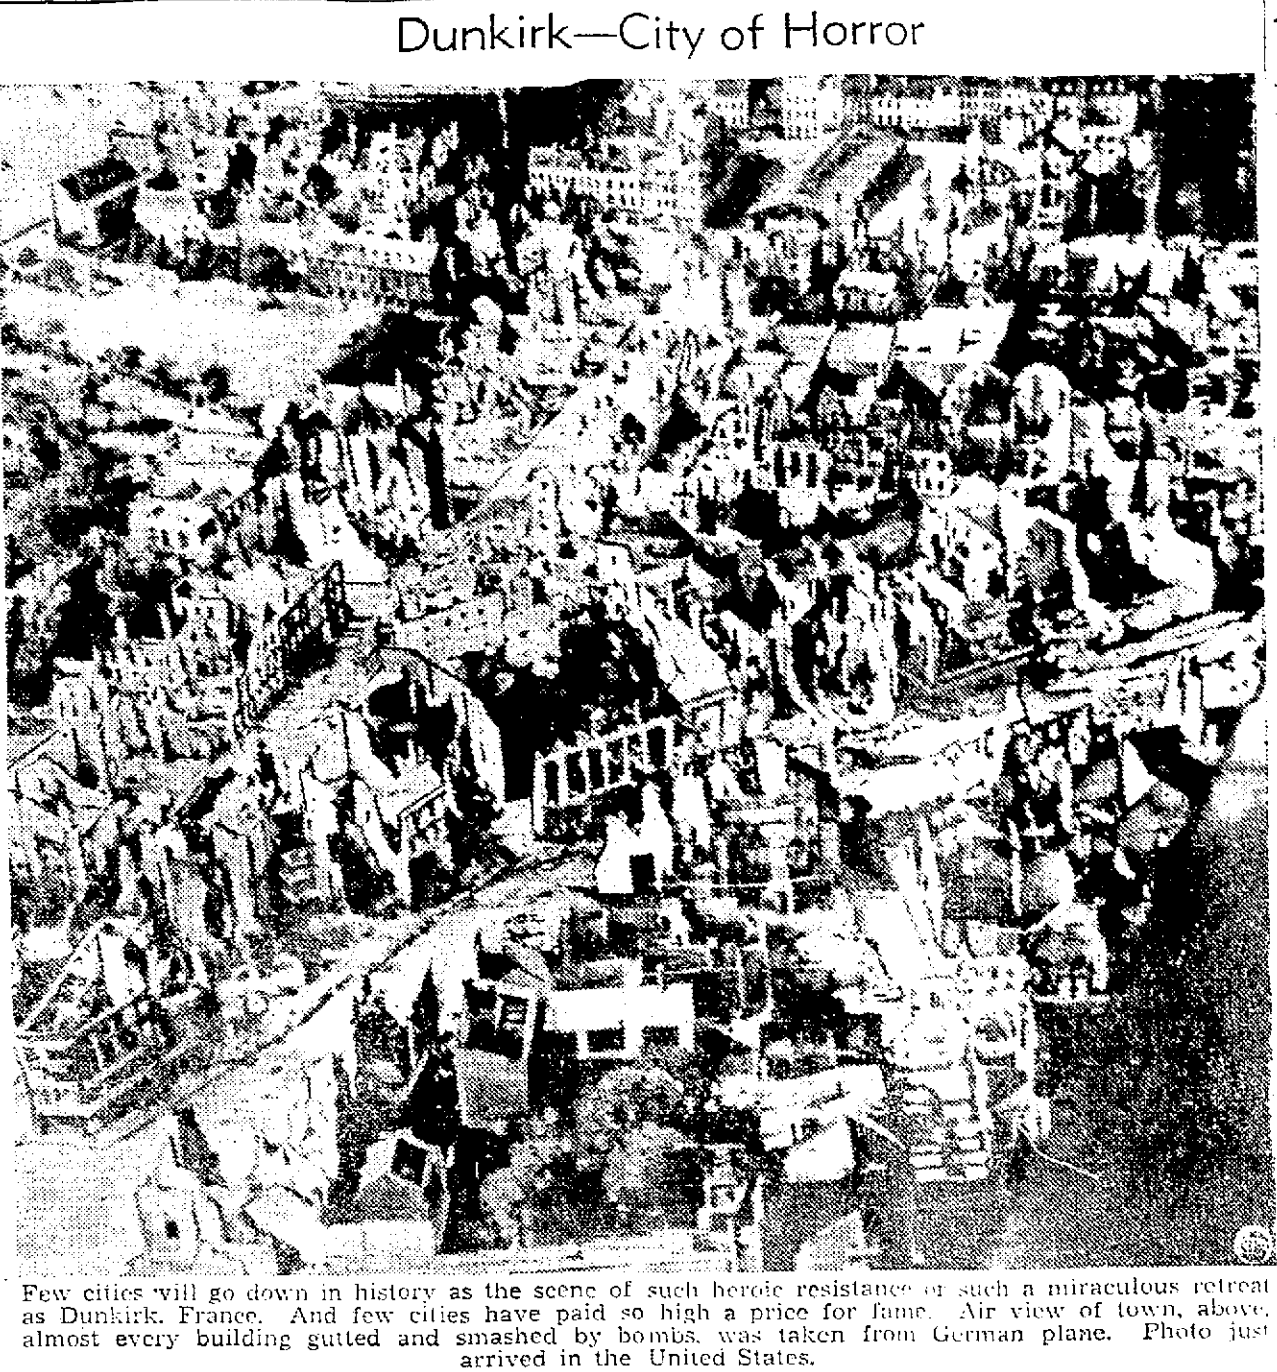

The custom of playing tricks on April Fool's Day has spread throughout the world.

Alaska derives its name from an Indian word meaning "great country."

POLITICAL FORUM

Articles appearing in this department are furnished by representatives of the respective parties in Warren county and are not intended to reflect the views or opinions of the publisher.

REPUBLICAN

The polls are still open. They will remain open until 8:00 p. m. Perhaps this will serve to remind you that if you have not yet voted, your vote is of great importance. We who love American freedom with all our hearts ask you to reject the Third Term. We sincerely believe that a Third Term is dangerous at any time, and that now, when one-man rule is rising in the world, it is particularly perilous. We believe that the extension of governmental power will not solve our problems; it has not solved them in eight years; it will only add to our problems as it has added to the problems of every country in Europe. We believe that the question embodied in the Third Term issue is the question of the New Deal versus American free enterprise. To clarify that issue we offer two quotations.

The first is the opinion of Thomas Corcoran, Chief of Staff to President Roosevelt, who said recently, after a small dinner in Washington, "Democracy is outmoded in the United States just as it is elsewhere in the world. The name of national socialism is not important. But we have a plan for this country. Gradually more power must be allocated to the executive. Of course the attacks on business must be continued as soon as the election is out of the way. When the business man and the investor are afraid of the government, they will not work. When the private investor is afraid to venture his money, the wheels of industry will not turn. As the industrial machine bogs down, government loans are necessary. More government loans to more private enterprises mean eventual government control and government ownership of these enterprises. There should not be too much ballyhoo at present and certain public opiates are necessary, such as speeches from the throne favoring democracy, social benefits and the underprivileged classes. We are not denying, we are making good progress and if we can win a third term we shall succeed completely."

The other quotation is from John Stuart Mill, who wrote more than eighty years ago:

"A people may prefer a free government but if, from indolence, or carelessness, or cowardice, or want of public spirit, they are unequal to the exertions necessary for preserving it; if they will not fight for it when it is directly attacked; if they can be deluded by the artifices used to cheat them out of it; if by momentary discouragement or temporary panic, or a fit of enthusiasm for an individual, they can be induced to lay their liberties at the feet even of a great man, or trust him with powers which enable him to subvert their institutions; in all these cases they are more or less unfit for liberty; and though it may be for their good to have had it even for a short time, they are unlikely to enjoy it."

We cannot believe that we are unfit for liberty. We believe that we can solve our problems within the framework of our traditional system. We believe in democracy.

DEMOCRAT

MR. WILLKIE'S FEAR-PUTSCH FROM WITHIN

Within the last fortnight a responsible Italian newspaper carried a statement by Mussolini in which the interest of the Axis powers in the American election was freely admitted. Furthermore, Il Duce announced the intention of those powers to "do something about it" at once.

On October 24 a new German-French agreement was announced whereby France cedes to Germany naval air bases in France and in all French colonies; these to include such strategic world points as Dakar, which controls the traffic of the Atlantic. The role of the French navy is to "protect" these ports while the Germans are busy building, and later operating, their air and naval bases. Expectation was expressed that a similar agreement with Spain would follow conferences now under way, an agreement which would probably open Gibraltar and the Mediterranean to the attack of the Germans.

What is the purpose of these moves? Can any American doubt? The purpose is to frighten Willkie into voting for Wendell Willkie, the so-called "peace" candidate, against President Roosevelt, the so-called "war" candidate. Doubtless there are other long-term reasons, but these are the immediate ones. No one can study the chronology of these two events and be long in doubt. The "agreements" with France and Spain, made with a Teuton gun leveled at their heads was for the purpose of stampeding the citizens of another despised democracy into doing the will of the conquerors.

Meanwhile in America Wendell Willkie has been employing the same Fear Tactic from within as have the Dictators from without. If Mr. Willkie had been working under orders from the Wilhelmstrasse, he could not have planned a better strategy. If he had sat at the foot of the Master Propagandist in his Bavarian retreat, and taken personal lessons in arousing Terror, he could not have worked more effectively.

Mr. Willkie led Super-Patriot who would lead America "back to the homely virtues, at least until the Axis gets around to imposing its own type of Virtue on us," has done the following things:

He has attempted to undermine the confidence of the Americans in the financial responsibility of their government by outright statements that we were bankrupt thousands for an individual, they can be induced to lay their liberties at the feet even of a great man, or trust him with powers which enable him to subvert their institutions; in all these cases they are more or less unfit for liberty; and though it may be for their good to have had it even for a short time, they are unlikely to enjoy it."

We cannot believe that we are unfit for liberty. We believe that we can solve our problems within the framework of our traditional system. We believe in democracy.

Letters to the Editor

Editor The Times-Mirror:

I am very much interested in a little very hairy fox terrier dog, Kneec Hi, who is now working in Buffalo, N. Y. She was brought there by the Buffalo Evening News, the Buffalo school department and the police department. I also heard her called Seymour (See more) which I think very appropriate. She is about three years old.

Her owner travels with her from one city to another, to teach children the rules of safety. She goes from one school to another, a different school each time, or the nearest traffic center to the school. She will not cross the street, until the signal light is green, or a traffic officer signals to her. Kneec Hi will drag from the street, children who play there or who cross against signals or who are trying to catch rides.

One day last week, at a brief ceremony at their barracks, Patrolman William Hogg on behalf of the "Mounties", presented the traffic professor with a card and badge, signifying honorary membership in Troop A. Kneec Hi responded with a few grateful barks and they like the way the traffic teacher is helping to make children realize that a policeman is a child's best friend.

This little safety sage showed students that they should pay attention, obey and remember her advice, with a wag of her stubby tail, she taught them the proper way to cross the street, and what to do if they were caught in the middle of the thoroughfare when the signal suddenly changed.

She ended their playing football, marbles, hide and seek or any other game in the road, instead of a lot of playground, may mean the end of all play days for those who break this rule. She warned that hitchhiking not only for the "thunder", but also for the motorist, who suddenly stops and thereby invites a crash. A small chair is placed near the sidewalk, and when not busy, she runs to it and rests.

She has been greatly fêted since being in Buffalo. She has been made an honorary member of the Zonta Club and of several organizations of the police department.

The owner of Kneec Hi was formerly a teacher, before he trained Kneec Hi to teach traffic regulations. He travels with her from one city to another, and makes a good income from Kneec Hi.

Mary Albrecht.

Pittsfield

Pittsfield, Nov. 2 Mrs. Emma McIntyre was hostess to the Ladies' Aid of the United Brethren church on Thursday. At the meeting of this society with Mrs. C. Johnson of Youngsville all the members were happy to greet Mrs. Leona Herrington, one of their shut-in members who had not been able to attend their meetings for several years.

The October meeting of the P. T. A. was held in the school house with Mrs. Melvin Brezelle presiding. Miss McGintley, of Harrisburg, was the guest speaker. The chairman of the various committees were announced. Considerable business in regard to plans, projects and programs was transacted. A short but very pleasing program was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Andell Osmond and Mrs. Florence Freeman were appointed chairman of the November meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson and family spent Monday evening with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson, of Laurel, to visit with their 94 year old uncle, Orin Thompson, of San Jacinto, California, and his great-grandson, Samuel Ryan, of Riverside, Calif.

The Pittsfield Garden Club was entertained in the home of Mrs. Ruby Dyer, whose birthday anniversary was remembered with a lovely gift. Several games were played, with prizes going to Mrs. Dyer and Mrs. Ed Johnson.

A lovely birthday cake was served by Mrs. Gladys Danielson, Mrs. Edwin and Mrs. Ellen Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Melro Teconchuk and Mr. and Mrs. John Boileak and son, John, Jr., attended a birthday party in Erie to honor Joseph Chigas.

Arvid Johnson is now at the Cleveland Clinic for observation and treatment.

Mrs. William Shattuck, with her son, Richard Lee, returned from the Warren General Hospital Tuesday and will spend a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smith.

Many are on the sick list. Among them are Mrs. Frances Webster, Mrs. Henry Danielson, Lois Cohen, Bobby Bull and John Rowland.

Mrs. James Thompson and son, John Kent Thompson, have returned from the Warren General Hospital and are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson before going to their home in Youngsville.

Mrs. Frank Murphy and Mrs. Lucy Chaffee visited Mrs. Maude Smith and Mrs. Pearl Smith Wednesday afternoon.

Cottage prayer meeting was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haight on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Smith and son, Robert Smith, attended the funeral services in memory of Mrs. William McGuire, of Warren, Monday afternoon.

Girl Scout Troop 28 had a representation to the number of sixteen at the Get-Together at Camp Birdsall today. This troop also donated four articles of infants wear to the Needlework Guild of Warren.

Rev. Hubert A. Markell, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, announced that revival meetings will be held in his church starting Wednesday evening, November 6, and continuing through November 24.

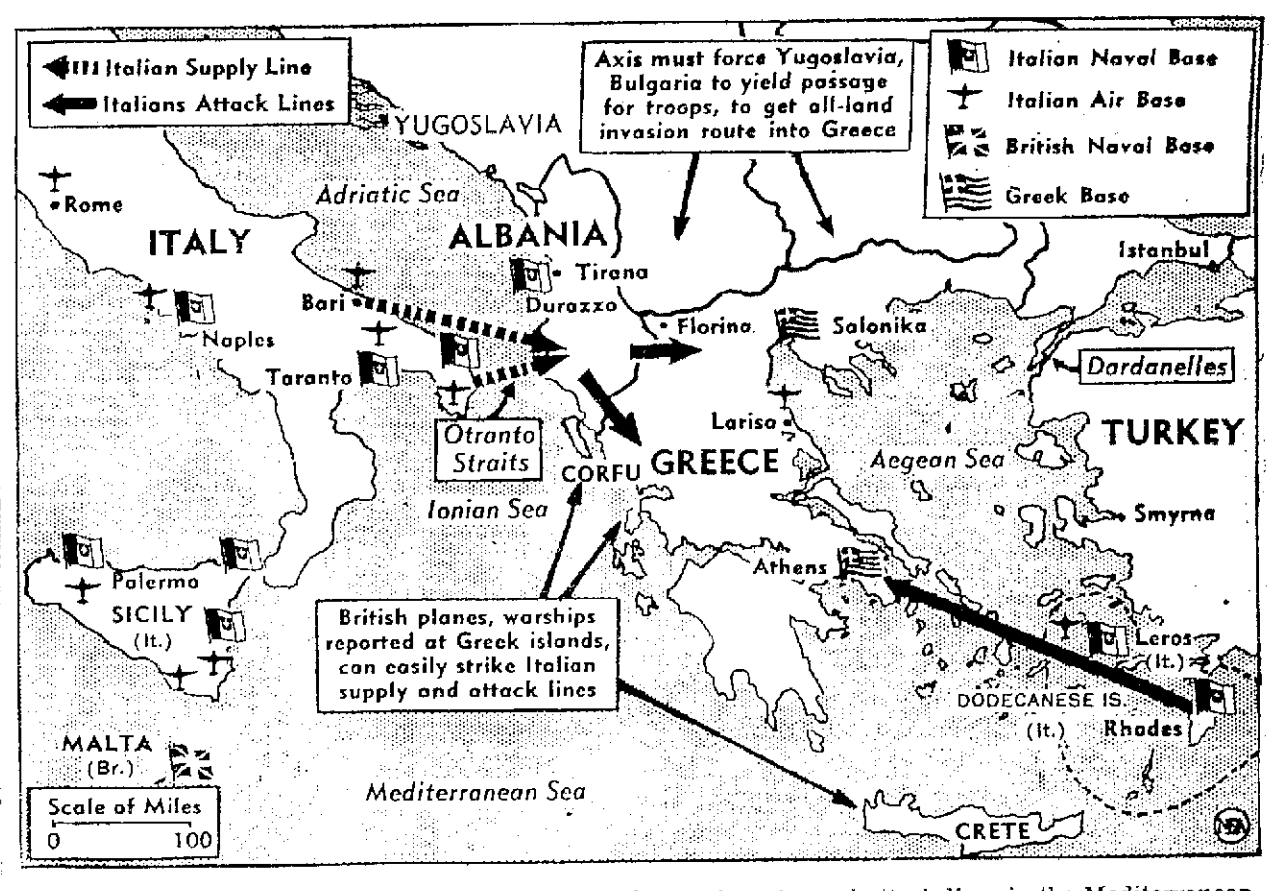

Rev. G. L. Norman, of Olean, N. Y., will be the evangelist and Rev. Rev. Ted Bartlett will be the song leader.

Leading up to these revival meetings prayer meetings are being held each evening either in the homes or in the church. These meetings started Monday evening, October 28.

THE HOUR OF BREATHLESS WAITING

The historic campaign of 1940 is about over. Right now we have reached that period of breathless waiting, while millions of Americans finished casting their ballots—waiting for the returns which will announce the decision, which should be known before another twelve hours.

It was a hard-fought, vigorous campaign. For the most part it was wholesome and constructive. The American people are now acquainted with the workings and the conditions of their federal government as never before. They were awakened to the issues in a manner that was entirely new to national politics in this country.

The issues were too vital, too important, too far-reaching to be decided by emotions and in the heat of eleventh-hour oratory. They commanded the most intelligent reasoning of which the American people were capable. That is why many believed last evening's radio broadsides penetrated mostly into homes where it was too late to alter already fixed opinions.

Despite the criticisms which were leveled from both sides, the harsh words that were spoken, most red-blooded Americans entered their polling booths minus rage or anger or hate. Petty differences and personal ambitions had been put aside.

An election campaign such as the nation has just experienced calls for patriotism of the highest order, and that is being exemplified as the people of these free United States of America joined the march to the polls today to help decide who is to head their free government for the next four years.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE

The people of the United States are choosing electors today. The electors cast the votes for presidential candidates. Long before their votes are cast, however, the result is known and theirs is a routine and very informal task.

The 531 votes of the electoral college are divided among the states according to population. The actual measure of a state's electors is the total of senators and representatives to which it is entitled.

Usually the entire electoral vote of a state is cast for one candidate, but occasionally the votes of a state are divided. This can happen when the popular vote is very close.

The usual explanation is that voters in considerable number believe they are voting for the whole party ticket when they mark an "X" after the name of one of that party's electors. Electoral votes are counted individually and if the top man on the electoral list of the minority party gets a few more votes than, say, the bottom man on the majority list, there is an electoral vote for the presidential candidate who was not the popular choice of the state.

The greatest plurality given a candidate in the last ten elections was in 1936. Next greatest was in 1932. The 523-to-8 electoral advantage of Franklin D. Roosevelt over Alf Landon in 1936 was considerably more lopsided than was the popular vote. Mr. Roosevelt received 27,476,673 votes to 16,679,583 for Landon. The popular advantage was approximately 7 to 4, whereas the electoral vote was in the ratio of 65 to 1.

Election returns will be broadcast over a public address system from the Times-Mirror office this evening. You are cordially invited to join the crowd and hear the authentic, non-partisan Associated Press reports!

The Warren General Hospital campaign has passed the $50,000 mark, again justifying the confidence and faith the community has always shown in the institution!

After scanning those election eve predictions by party leaders one cannot help but think that a lot of folks are going to be terribly disappointed tomorrow morning.

Soviet Russia appears to be standing pat on her policy of neutrality despite the extension of the war into Greece.

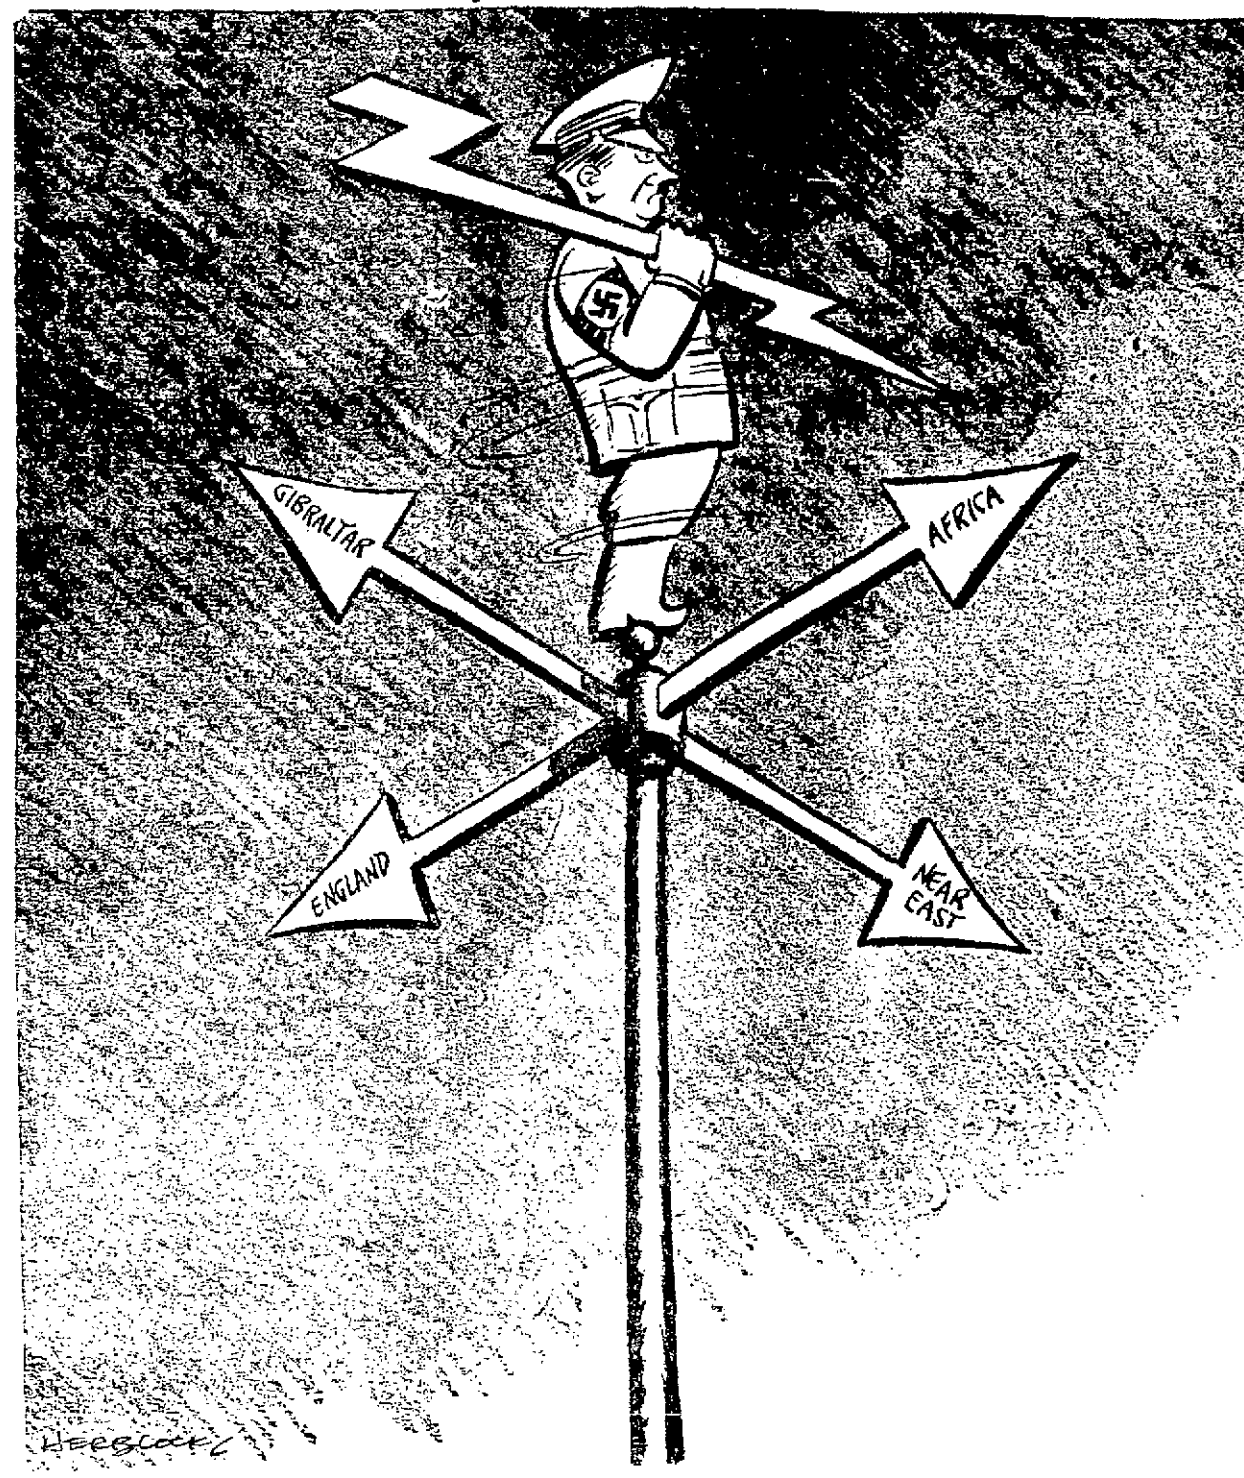

Well, you still have time to get to the polls before they close at eight o'clock.

Cloudy, With Variable Winds

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—This is a good football town for money but a poor one for fun. If you are accustomed to the big horseshoe stadiums of the west and south you'll be unable to tell yourself go in New York except possibly at Columbia University's Baker field, which is really a gridiron instead of a stadium.

Most big games in New York are played at the Polo Grounds or Yankee Stadium. They were designed for baseball and in them football is out of place. Only in midfield are the seats any good, and neither love nor money can provide midfield seats for the average fan. The answer is politics—not civil politics, but school and business politics.

I SUPPOSE I am prejudiced. At a formative time in my life I spent seven or eight years at Columbus, O., and any sports writer in the country will tell you Columbus is the capital of the football world. On Monday morning the coach may be hanged in effigy and by Friday evening the emotional build-up is so intense that women begin to faint and ex-hairbacks grow pale—all this with the next day's game in mind.

Usually the home and visiting coaches make speeches. The downtown sector is a vortex of humanity with thousands of students but ripples in a sea. Football takes over. Business comes to a standstill.

Next day the town is astir before dawn. The trek to the stadium begins in mid-morning and if you are fortunate enough to be on a tall building or in an airplane you will see the landscape dotted for miles around with specks of humanity, wending their way toward the great horseshoe.

Gradually the specks are welded into a whole, and you have a vast acreage of chrysanthemum-laden chests and fluttering streamers. You have blaring bugles and strutting drum-majors and the whole insane picture of college football at its best.

WELL, in New York you don't have this. You don't have anything, except a few announcements in the papers and a scramble for second-class seats at the dead end of a baseball park.

Yet, the people go. No one can remember when the Army-Notre Dame game hasn't sold out Yankee Stadium at $4.40 per, this in spite of the fact that one or both (in recent years at least) have come up to the big game with mediocre records. The Army this year has been linked 45-0. But 80,000 people will be on hand when the kick-off comes.

What New York needs is an old-fashioned Ivy League or mid-west horseshoe concrete stadium. It needs flying streamers and a campus lined with giant oaks instead of skyscrapers. To me it seems to be missing the whole fundamental spirit of football now.

Charles Chaplin, actor, is a stubborn cuss. At the end of his film, "The Dictator," he makes a six minute speech, "It's too long," say the critics. "That's something I've been wanting to say a long time," says Charlie, "and IN it stays."

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1920

E. I. Glassman, the Hickory street merchant, had a narrow escape from serious injury today while riding his bicycle at the corner of Second avenue and Liberty street. He was making the turn into Hickory street from Second avenue when he collided with one of the Walker Ice Cream Company trucks.

Although sweet cider is retailing at 25 cents per gallon, some of the soft drink places in the city are selling it at 10 cents per glass while others charge only a nickel. There is a great shortage of containers this year and vendors are having difficulty in disposing of their apple juice at this season.

The first number of "Trinity Tidings," a 4-page paper published in the interest and for the benefit of members of Trinity Memorial Episcopal Parish, will be appearance Friday. The first pastor, B. Mathews, is editor.

F. E. Jackson left yesterday to look after business interests in Quincy, Florida, enroute to Mrs. Jackson in Louisiana, Ky.

Plummer Meade, of Youngsville, spent the day in Warren.

The American prairie is named for a French word meaning meadow.

Fifteen thousand of North Carolina's three and a half million population are Indians.

In 1930

Almost nine thousand votes were cast in Warren county in the election Tuesday, unofficial tallies made yesterday show. The four candidates on the ballot for governor received a total of 8,905 votes, as follows: Pinchot, 5,880; Hempbill, 3,147; Mozer, 37; and Maurer, 41.

Two of the greatest attractions to be in Warren in some years will be found on the program of entertainment for this winter. Tomorrow night Cornelia Otis Skinner will give a dramatic recital, her own Character Sketches at the Woman's Club and in November the English Singers of London will be brought here by the Philomel Club.

The bridge committee of council have decided to remove the wood bridge across the mill race at the foot of Market street. This is made necessary as the structure is not deemed safe for pedestrians. Residents of Clark street will be greatly inconvenienced without the bridge.

Judge Arnd, assisted by L. E. Russell, Frank Conarro, J. H. Berger and Mrs. E. M. Hulings are today making the official count of the ballots cast at Tuesday's election.

Mrs. E. W. Smiley will entertain the Research Club Saturday.

STAMP NEWS

LINCOLN and a slave are pictured on the U. S. 3-cent stamp above, commemorating the 75th anniversary of the 13th amendment to the Constitution, abolishing slavery. The design is a reproduction of Thomas Ball's statue, "Emancipation," in Lincoln Park, Washington, D. C.

Lincoln's proclamation of Jan. 1, 1863, freed more than 3,000,000 slaves. Certain exceptions left 800,000 Negroes in slavery. The 13th amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the states in 1865, ratified by 33 of the 36 states then in existence, and declared in force Dec. 18, 1865.

The stamp was placed on first-day sale at the New York World's Fair postoffice, Oct. 20.

SHOP TALK
Every occasion has its own particular jargon, some of which often slips into the language. Here are questions about five fairly well known trade terms: how many can you answer?

1. In railroad jargon, what is a hoghead?
2. What is a sustaining radio program?
3. In the language of Hollywood, what is a horse opera?
4. In the jargon of musicians, what is a long-haired boy?
5. In criminals' jargon, what is a snow bird?

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—When you are looking back on the Presidential campaign and sifting out the oddities for your memory book, see if you can find things to match these Presidential oddities from ancient history:

John Scott Harrison was both father and son of Presidents, the father of Benjamin and the son of William Henry. . . . Martin Van Buren was the first of the Presidents who was not born a British subject. . . . Virginia still is the "mother of Presidents." Her native sons who have risen to the highest office are Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, William Henry Harrison, Taylor, Tyler and Wilson. . . . Mrs. Victoria Claflin Woodhull was nominated for the Presidency in 1872. . . . Almost one-third of the men who have been elected chief executives have been slaveholders: Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Tyler, Polk, Taylor, Johnson and Grant.

William Henry Harrison and Zachary Taylor are the only Presidents who have died in the White House. . . . The elections of Jefferson, John Quincy Adams and Rutherford B. Hayes all were decided by Congress. . . . Lincoln, the anti-slavery President, was born in Dixie (what is now Lenoir county, Kentucky) while his chief political opponent, Stephen A. Douglas, was a son of the north, born in Vermont.

The Shortest Term
WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON was President exactly one month. . . . In Missouri, they claim that David R. Atchison, senator from that state, should be listed as one of the Presidents: Polk's term expired March 3 and Zachary Taylor was not inaugurated until March 5, 1849; there was no Vice-President and as president pro tem. of the senate, Atchison was President but he was not sworn in. . . . Washington received only $25,000 salary for his entire first term, after which the salary was raised to $25,000 a year, which is the same amount as the present Presidential expense fund, the salary having been raised to $75,000.

President Roosevelt's first term was 41 days shorter than that of any other President since Washington who served a full term. Because of the "Lame Duck" amendment which showed the inauguration back from March 4 to January 20. . . . In Monroe's second term, he received all but one of the votes of the electoral college. . . . Neither Lincoln nor Wilson, in their first terms, received a majority of the popular vote of the country.

Taft Got Two States
PRESIDENT JOHNSON, in his early days, was a illiterate tailor—William Howard Taft carried only two states when he ran against Wilson and Theodore Roosevelt, Utah and Vermont. . . . William Rufus King, Franklin Pierce's vice-president, was the only one ever to take the oath of office outside the United States and the only vice-president who never was in Washington after his election; he took the oath of office in Cuba, where he had gone for his health and died six weeks later after returning to his Alabama plantation.

Both North and South Carolina claim the birth place of Andrew Jackson. . . . The first national party convention wasn't held until 1831, when the Anti-Masonic party met in Baltimore. . . . Vice-presidents originally were the men who received the second largest number of votes for President. . . . Only since June, 1924, has an Indian been eligible for the Presidency. . . . Elbridge Gerry, who as Madison's vice-president presided over the senate, resigned the vice-presidency to become a senator.

Although it was organized in 1900 and has had a Presidential nominee in every election since, the Socialist party has had only two nominees: Eugene V. Debs and Norman Thomas.

METHODISTS TO HOLD MEETING AT JAMESTOWN

Methodist pastors and laymen of this section will be in attendance at the Jamestown District conference to be held Thursday in the First Methodist church of Jamestown, N. Y., where Rev. E. R. Myers is pastor.

Opening at ten o'clock, Rev. Warren A. Bugbee will conduct a devotional period, followed by a brief business session. At 10:30 "Each Kinsman's Part" will be presented by E. E. Champ for the men, Mrs. V. L. Bloomquist for the women and Evelyn Brown for the youth. Rev. G. W. Osmun will preach the sermon immediately preceding the noon adjournment for lunch.

Rev. C. M. Reed, formerly of Youngsville, has charge of the devotions which open the afternoon session at 1:30 o'clock. At 1:45, Rev. H. H. Barr, of Kane, former Warren pastor who has just concluded his administration as district superintendent, will speak on "We Promote World Service Plans, Resources, Materials."

At 2:15 o'clock in Epworth church, Mrs. Bloomquist will conduct the meeting of the District Woman's Society for Christian Service. This group will hold its evening banquet at six o'clock in the same church, with Mrs. Barr presiding, assisted by Mrs. Bloomquist.

Continuing with the regular program at 2:15 o'clock, Dr. Thomas E. Colley, of Warren's First church, will speak on "Erie Conference Finance," with recess taken at three.

At 3:15, Rev. George Green will present the topic "Methodism and Evangelism." This will be followed at 3:45 by the bishop's hour in charge of Bishop James M. Straughn.

At its conclusion, Alan Templeton will conduct the business session of those in charge of district lay activities. Immediately afterward, starting at 5:15, there will be a reception for Bishop Straughn and District Superintendent J. A. Galbraith and their families. Dr. Galbraith, former Warren and Kane pastor, is just beginning his new work as superintendent, having succeeded Dr. Barr.

Mr. Templeton will also preside for the lay activities banquet, held at six o'clock in the headquarters church, with Edgar T. Welch as the speaker.

The concluding service of the day will be opened at eight o'clock with a worship period. Rev. E. Roy Myers will preside and the message will be brought by Bishop Straughn. Music will be by Grace church choir, of Warren, singing "Hymn to the Trinity" by Tchaikowsky. Mrs. Emil Jacobson will be at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leonard and son spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kraft.

Miss Mary Whelen has arrived from Balboa, Panama Canal Zone to visit the C. E. Burdette and Bradford relatives. The Howard Gunsons, of Buffalo, spent the week-end at the Bortoff home.

Harry Hammond, Buffalo, accompanied by a party of Buffalo friends, recently visited his parents, Mrs. and Mrs. H. L. Hammond.

E. S. Vansickle has left for Washington, D. C., on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Clawson spent Thursday in Warren. Mr. Clawson met with an injury to his foot while at work with Struthers-Wells plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammond, Salamanca, have been visitors of Mrs. Nora Crooks.

The John Reids will leave for Oil City over the weekend after spending the summer here.

Enjoy Life, Don't Be Miserable

There is no use letting inactive kidneys make you miserable. Thompson's Borsoma Tablets being a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys are a great aid in helping the kidneys flush out poisonous waste matter and excess acid from the blood. This poisonous waste is often the cause of miserable aches and pains and making you get up nights. Thompson's Borsoma Tablets are also excellent for your liver and stomach. 50c at all drug stores. THE ROAD TO SHAN-LIN

Chapter 34
Tara's Prisoner

TEMU glanced at the mouth from which those words came as if for a moment he could not believe the content. He played some sort of sweet violence against it. "Some day, somebody's going to nip off the end of that sharp little tongue of yours if you don't reform."

She shrugged. "You see," she said, "we start out to play and we end up in a quarrel. There's no goddess in me."

He turned his pony aside to round a sharp outcrop of shale. "You can be mighty sweet when you want to be. You are the Tara. You look like the Tara."

"Perhaps I do look like the Tara," she admitted, and added angrily, "It is a coincidence that Sherlock took advantage of his princeling's wanted white wife and no adventuress. They looked me up and decided I'd do."

Temu's brows had drawn together. "You would make out everyone to be scheming and insincere."

She started at him a moment, her lips parted. "You're right," she agreed suddenly. "That is the way I was taught to use my mind—to distrust everyone until he proves himself."

"You didn't distrust your half-brother?"

"And I was a fool. You see the trouble it brought upon me."

"Do you still distrust me?"

"I distrust your loyalty to your Prince. A girl might forgive a man who goes to any length to win her for himself, but when he breaks all the laws to secure her for another man, it's not so complimentary."

Temu grinned. "I stand corrected."

Across the plain from the north appeared tiny moving specks on the landscape. Through the glasses they proved to be a splendidly mounted band of horsemen armed to the teeth.

"Chinese opium runners most likely," he said. "They follow the less frequented trails of hill and desert. Probably headed for Lan-fou."

A thrill of excitement went through Lynn. "Or they may be a party of Dick's men out looking for me."

Temu increased the pace of his lame horse. "I can see they are not, but still I wish to avoid them." Lynn hung back. He halted and called, "Come! Hurry!"

She took her time and when she caught up with him deliberately dismounted. "I don't want to hurry," she said.

He was out of his saddle in a flash and strode to her side. "Mount your horse at once, Lynn."

Instead she sat down on a convenient boulder. He caught hold of her upper arms and drew her to her feet. She went limp and would have fallen had he not supported her. He shook her a bit. "Shall I tie you to your horse?" he demanded.

"How long would it take?" she asked calmly, her eyes on the fast approaching cavalcade. Lynn was a tall lad, firmly built and well proportioned. He lifted her as lightly as if she were a dummy and fastened her to the saddle with a leather thong about her waist. Then he mounted his own horse, caught up her pony's rein, and made for the breaks of a deep canyon.

Hard Crossing

IT WAS one of the greatest chasms that Lynn had ever seen. On some of the more terrifying ledges she was glad to be tied to the saddle. In one particular place iron crowbars had been driven into the perpendicular, thousand-foot cliff, and on these cross-pieces, broad flat stones were placed.

Temu dismounted and led his horse across while Lynn watched with suspended breath. The animal trembled with fear, but there was some power in the man that compelled obedience. When it had almost completed the passage it stumbled. Lynn stifled a scream. Temu jumped back nimbly, escaping death by a hair's breadth, and somehow, drew the horse safely after him.

He came back to Lynn's side. A little sprinkle of golden-brown freckles stood out across the bridge of her nose. He regarded her pallor for a moment before he spoke.

"Don't be frightened, Tara Lynn. It is not in the stars that harm shall come to you on the desert road. Will you ride across or walk?"

"I'd rather fly," she said tremulously.

He smiled and unfastened the thong that bound her and had her dismount. He took one of her hands.

"To fly is not impossible." His hand on hers had power. Her consciousness lifted.

He drew her easily to the firm footing of solid ground on the farther side. She stood leaning against him a moment, breathing deep and slow, her eyes shut while he scrutinized the long lashes trembling against cheeks in which faint color pulsed. Then she stepped back and looked at him, a vague smile curving her lips.

"You must have hypnotized me," she said. He did not deny it. "All ideas are hypnotic. Cling to those that do not limit your powers."

WOMEN'S GROUP PLANS MEETING AT YOUNGVILLE

Youngsville, Nov. 4.—The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at 6 p. m. Wednesday for a dinner meeting to which men are also invited. This will be a luncheon and guests are asked to bring complete table service.

Following the dinner, the program will be under the direction of Miss Golda Hill. One of the features will be the display of Mexican articles collected by Miss Mathilda Steinhoff, of Warren, who has spent the last four summers in Mexico.

Mrs. Nellie Anderson will conduct a short devotional period. Other features of the program will be music and talks by ladies dressed in the costumes of various countries as follows: Mrs. Lawrence Eighmey, China; Mrs. Warren Jones, Korea; Mrs. Alice Streeter, Brazil; Mrs. Dwight Jack, Japan; Mrs. Mildred Jones, India; Mrs. Grace Shippe, Mexico; Miss Hill, America. The program will close with a talk by Rev. Dwight Jack.

DR. WILLIAM HAY

Funeral services were held Sunday morning for Dr. William Hay of Stroudsburg, whose death occurred Thursday after a long illness. He is survived by his wife and one son, William Hay, a daughter Miss Marjorie Hay preceded him in death.

Burial was in Buffalo where a brief service was held Sunday at the grave. Friends from Warren, Erie and Youngsville attended this service.

During the years that he was a physician in Youngsville, Dr. Hay made many friends and it was on East Main street, Youngsville, he opened a sanatorium introducing special diets, and later as a specialist in diet became nationally known.

PRIZES FOR PARTY

Much effort was put forth by parents and pupils in getting attractive costumes for the recent Halloween party sponsored by the Youngsville Business Men and the faculty of the grades. Judges were Mrs. Wood and Mr. Irwin of Warren. The party was held in the Youngsville School gymnasium with relatives and friends of the children present. Refreshments were served.

BRIEFS

Owing to a conflict with the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Grange Circle has been postponed from Wednesday of this week until Wednesday, Nov. 13th, at the home of Mrs. Telfman. The Red Circle also will meet Nov. 13th with Mrs. Mary Blakeslee.

A number of ladies from the Youngsville Chapter of the Eastern Star attended the district conference and banquet held in Meadville Friday. Those making the trip to Meadville were Mrs. Chloé Mead, Mrs. Grace Shippe, Mrs. Nellie Anderson, Mrs. Neva Mix, Mrs. Alice Streeter, Mrs. Rona Sticks, Mrs. Dorothy Stillings, Mrs. Edna Peters, Mrs. Lena Hendrickson.

Mrs. Alvin Jackson had the misfortune to fall through the attic floor of her home last week, receiving injuries which have confined her to her bed.

The first communion service of the Youngsville Methodist church last Sunday morning was conducted Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Dwight Jack. In the evening Dr. Galbraith, newly appointed district superintendent, brought an inspiring message which was followed by the first quarterly conference.

Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Stillings are enjoying a visit from the former's mother.

Revelry services opened Sunday evening, Nov. 3rd, and will continue until Nov. 24th. The services are being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Samuel Stumer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spencer were recent visitors in Harrisburg.

Rev. C. Donald Dibble was among the United Brethren church leaders to meet in conference in Harrisburg last week to consider Christian educational plans to be presented to general conference in May.

Local Zontians To Join In Observance Of 21st Anniversary

Warren Zontians will observe "Zonta Week" with a 6:30 o'clock dinner Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. H. A. Ross, Hickory street. Mrs. Ann McClure, past president of the local unit, will have charge of the program, and it is hoped there will be a full turnout of the membership.

Programs that will urge women to accept more of the responsibilities of citizenship are being presented by Zonta clubs in 150 communities of the United States and Canada during this first week of November, marking the 21st anniversary of this pioneer service club for executive women.

"Women as World Citizens" is the general theme of the week and programs will emphasize broader aspects of community service and a keener appreciation of the democratic way of life.

Among the subjects Zonta clubs are studying this year are trade relations and their bearing on world peace, ways of developing better leadership in government and the problem of the older unemployed business and professional woman.

Zonta was organized on November 8, 1919 in Buffalo, N. Y., and now there are approximately 4,500 members in some 150 clubs, all engaged in some service project for girls and young women. The various clubs maintain more than 100 different scholarships and loan funds and many of them sponsor a vocational guidance program in cooperation with the schools.

PTA Production at High School Greeted By Capacity Audience of Young Drama Lovers

The high school auditorium was completely filled Monday afternoon for the Clare Tree Major production, "Hans Brinker or the Silver Skates," the initial offering of the Community P. T. A. Council for this season. The capacity audience included many more children from rural communities than has been present heretofore.

Many in Warren were particularly interested in this first play, since Miss Gertrude Ogsbury, well known Erie girl, is a member of the "Hans Brinker" cast. Miss Ogsbury, who has been very successful in Little Theatre work in Erie, carries the role of Gretel Brinker, sister of the famous Hans. Her mother, Mrs. Marguerite Ogsbury, came yesterday for the performance.

A highlight of the program was the awarding of prizes to winners in the poster contest sponsored by the council in conjunction with its annual season ticket sale. Mrs. Fred Schuler, publicity chairman, was in charge and awarded prizes to Sammy Manfrey, Angelo Regina, Gordon Baker, Bertha Rice, James Gilson and Dominic Scallise.

At the conclusion of the very successful entertainment, members of the cast went to the First Methodist fellowship supper and later to the Hotel Carver for their over-night stay. The company is playing in Meadville today and on Wednesday in Cleveland. A feature of their appearance in that city will be the broadcast of portions of "Hans Brinker" at 12:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Alan Templeton, who heads the season ticket committee for the local plays, reports that there are still about 15 season tickets available to those who may wish them.

The remaining plays on this year's schedule are "The Secret Garden" on January 20 and "Alice in Wonderland" on April 7.

Willkie Puts in a Last Word

Willkie L. Willkie is pictured in his election eve radio appeal to voters as he delivered the closing words of his campaign for the presidency of the United States. Despite the strain of a long, 34-state campaign, the Republican candidate still wears a big smile.

Two American Doll Costumes

PATTERN 4607
By Anne Adams

The perfect solution to that "what shall I put under her Christmas tree?" problem is this adorable pair of doll costumes. Pattern 4607, designed by Anne Adams. They will give real pleasure to any American youngster who likes a bit of realism in her make-believe. The crisp outfit for a nurse doll has special patriotic appeal. It consists of an apron, a dress and a real nurse's cap, back veil and all. The colorful outfit for a black-faced "Mammy" doll includes a simple dress, gay in flowered cotton, a starched white apron and one bandanna for her kinky head; another for her neck. These little garments make good practice work for a beginner in sewing, with the Sewing Instructor for aid.

Pattern 4607 is available for dolls measuring 14, 16, 18, 20 and 22 inches. For individual yardages see pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly: NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. EXTRA! EXTRA! Everything about the ANNE ADAMS WINTER FASHION BOOK makes extra news! Its vivid pages are filled with styles new as tomorrow's headlines—each in a sure-to-fit pattern. Smart sewing for the whole family circle, including workaday modes and party frocks—tailored twosomes and afternoon dresses—slimming matron outfits, basic wardrobes for office and campus. Letters to the Editor

November 4, 1940.
Warren Times-Mirror,
Warren, Pennsylvania.
Gentlemen:
The Republican County Committee wishes at this time to express to the editor of the Times-Mirror its appreciation for the cooperation extended to the County Committee during the present campaign. This cooperation has been an outstanding feature of the Presidential Campaign of 1940, and I am sure will be long remembered.

With sincere thanks, I remain
Yours very truly,

sharply contested commonwealths—terribly reported: "Record balloting indicated." In some counties almost one-fourth of the entire vote was cast by 11 a. m. (EST).

Delaware's weather was generally favorable and reports from that area also proclaimed: "Turn-out seems heaviest in history."

Rain was forecast for western Pennsylvania this afternoon, and occasional rains were in store for New York tonight. The polls close in New York at 9 p. m. Pennsylvania and New Jersey at 8, and Delaware at 6 (EST).

Traditionally Republican upstate New York was vying with traditionally Democratic New York City for huge turnouts, and each area—the state's electoral ballot hanging in the balance between the two—reported large crowds in the early balloting.

London on the overnight assault. Other German raiders attacked Edinburgh, Liverpool and Coventry, while British RAF bombers once again pounded the German-held "invasion ports" of Ostend, Boulogne and Le Havre.

At daybreak, the Germans returned in force, precipitating a series of violent clashes high over the southeast English coast. London underwent two brief air-raid alarms before noon, but no bombs fell in the city, and the German formations were reported turned back.

Meanwhile the Royal Air Force, also hampered by continued adverse weather, was reported to have struck again at the German-held ports along the coast of France and German airdromes in the occupied area of France.

Guffey's bid for re-election. The 64-year-old party leader—Pennsylvania's first Democratic U. S. senator in 60 years—campaigns on a claim of a "100 per cent" new deal record.

Lined up against him was Jay Cooke, baldish 43-year-old chairman of the Philadelphia Republican city committee, who denounced the Roosevelt administration as loudly as Guffey supported it. Cooke, great grandson of the Civil War financier of the same name, never before had sought public office.

As the campaign thundered to a close, some observers still listed Pennsylvania as a "doubtful" state, but leaders of the two major parties confidently predicted victories by margins ranging between 450,000 and 500,000.

Democrats, who in the closing days of the campaign charged that an attempt was being made to "buy" the election in this state, coupled their victory predictions with warnings against any election law violations.

Republican spokesmen termed "absurd" the charge of "buying" the election.

Although Pennsylvania has been traditionally Republican, President Roosevelt carried the state in 1936 by 663,787 despite a Republican registration lead of 600,205. Two years later, however, Republicans made a strong comeback when Arthur H. James was elected governor by 280,060.

Again this year, Republicans have a registration lead of 600,000. The state enrollment is 5,020,667 and includes 2,787,450 Republicans, 2,166,723 Democrats and 67,494 others.

Pushed into the background by the national campaign but nevertheless important was the fight for the 34 seats in congress, second largest state bloc in the nation.

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—(P)—Philadelphia leaders of both major parties cast their votes as the polls opened today and repeated predictions of victory for their respective tickets.

Jay Cooke, Republican city chairman and candidate for the U. S. senate, voting near his home in Chestnut Hill, expressed confidence that Wendell L. Willkie would carry Pennsylvania and the nation, and added: "I don't think it will be close, either."

John B. Kelly, Democratic city chairman, casting his ballot in a church basement, reiterated his prediction that President Roosevelt would win in Philadelphia as he did four years ago.

Both leaders then started all-day tours of polling places throughout the city.

NEW HEATING PLANT FOR CENTRAL FIRE STATION APPROVED BY BORO COUNCIL AT NOVEMBER MEETING

At the November meeting of the Warren borough council, held last night at the municipal building, installation of a new heating plant at the Central Fire Station was authorized, erection of two new street lights was approved and routine business transacted.

The Keystone Sheet Metal Company, of Warren, was low bidder on a coal furnace for the fire station, the price being $890. Other bidders were Warren Sheet Metal Company, Neal and Company and the Pennsylvania Furnace and Iron Company.

Upon resolutions by Councilman Raymond Morrison, the placing of 100-candlepower street lights at Allegheny avenue and Falconer street and at Home and Monroe streets was approved. Mr. Morrison also reported that under the new tariff announced recently, the borough would save about $1,100 a year on its electric bill.

A report of the progress of WPA projects in the borough was presented by Councilman Delbert Lewis. Upon motion by him, the purchase of sewer pipe to be used in Division street, was authorized at a cost not to exceed $500. It was announced that because of changes in specifications, the opening of bids for additional sewer pipe would be postponed until the December meeting. All bids were returned unopened.

Councilman Robert Trusler reported that catch basins are being installed in several streets. He also stated that the work of removing rails from Conewago avenue has been completed and that work is being started in Liberty street.

The question of changing the school traffic light at Pennsylvania avenue and South street, which was placed in the hands of the police committee at the October meeting, was left unsettled when Councilman Joseph DeFrees reported that after investigation, ing the situation could be found. He said the police committee had decided to leave the light as it is for the present.

A large number of residents of that section had presented a petition asking that the light be changed because of the danger to children from traffic entering Pennsylvania avenue from Plum and South South streets.

It was reported by Councilman C. A. Miller that the fire department answered 14 calls during October, with a total loss estimated at $123.10.

Three building permits for improvements valued at $12,200 were reported by Councilman Frank Willard. Councilman Trusler reported that $15.20 was collected in fees from the borough scales. Bills amounting to $14,966.77 were ordered paid when approved by the various committees.

It was reported that a total of $965.14 was collected from parking meters during the month, with $293.27 to go to the manufacturers as a payment on the last installment.

A resolution authorizing the Warren Baking Company to erect an electric line from its plant to the property of the New York Central Railroad was approved and a bond of $2,000 required.

Robert Punskey appeared before council, asking that something be done about boys who are causing damage to his properties. The matter was referred to the burgess and police committee.

Councilmen at last night's meeting included President F. W. White, C. A. Miller, E. M. Krebs, J. H. DeFrees, E. W. Patchen, P. A. Mahaffy, R. H. Trusler, F. C. Willard, W. R. Walsh, D. L. Baldensperger, R. P. Morrison, P. C. Braunschweiger, D. W. Lewis, J. G. Smith and W. H. Murphy. Others at the meeting included Marjorie L. Dougherty, secretary; S. D. Blackman, solicitor, and C. W. Barwis, borough engineer.

Weekly Dragonette Makes Appearance; New Plan This Year

Under a new plan adopted this year, the Warren High School "Dragonette" will appear as a weekly publication instead of once a month as in former years. The first issue of the new weekly made its appearance yesterday.

It is the plan of the Dragonette board to publish 26 issues during the school year. Students pay 25 cents for the entire year's subscription, or two cents a copy.

The new Dragonette is a mimeographed paper in newspaper style. The first issue includes four three-column pages, filled with interesting news of school affairs.

There are about 1,172,000,000 cross ties in railway track in the United States.

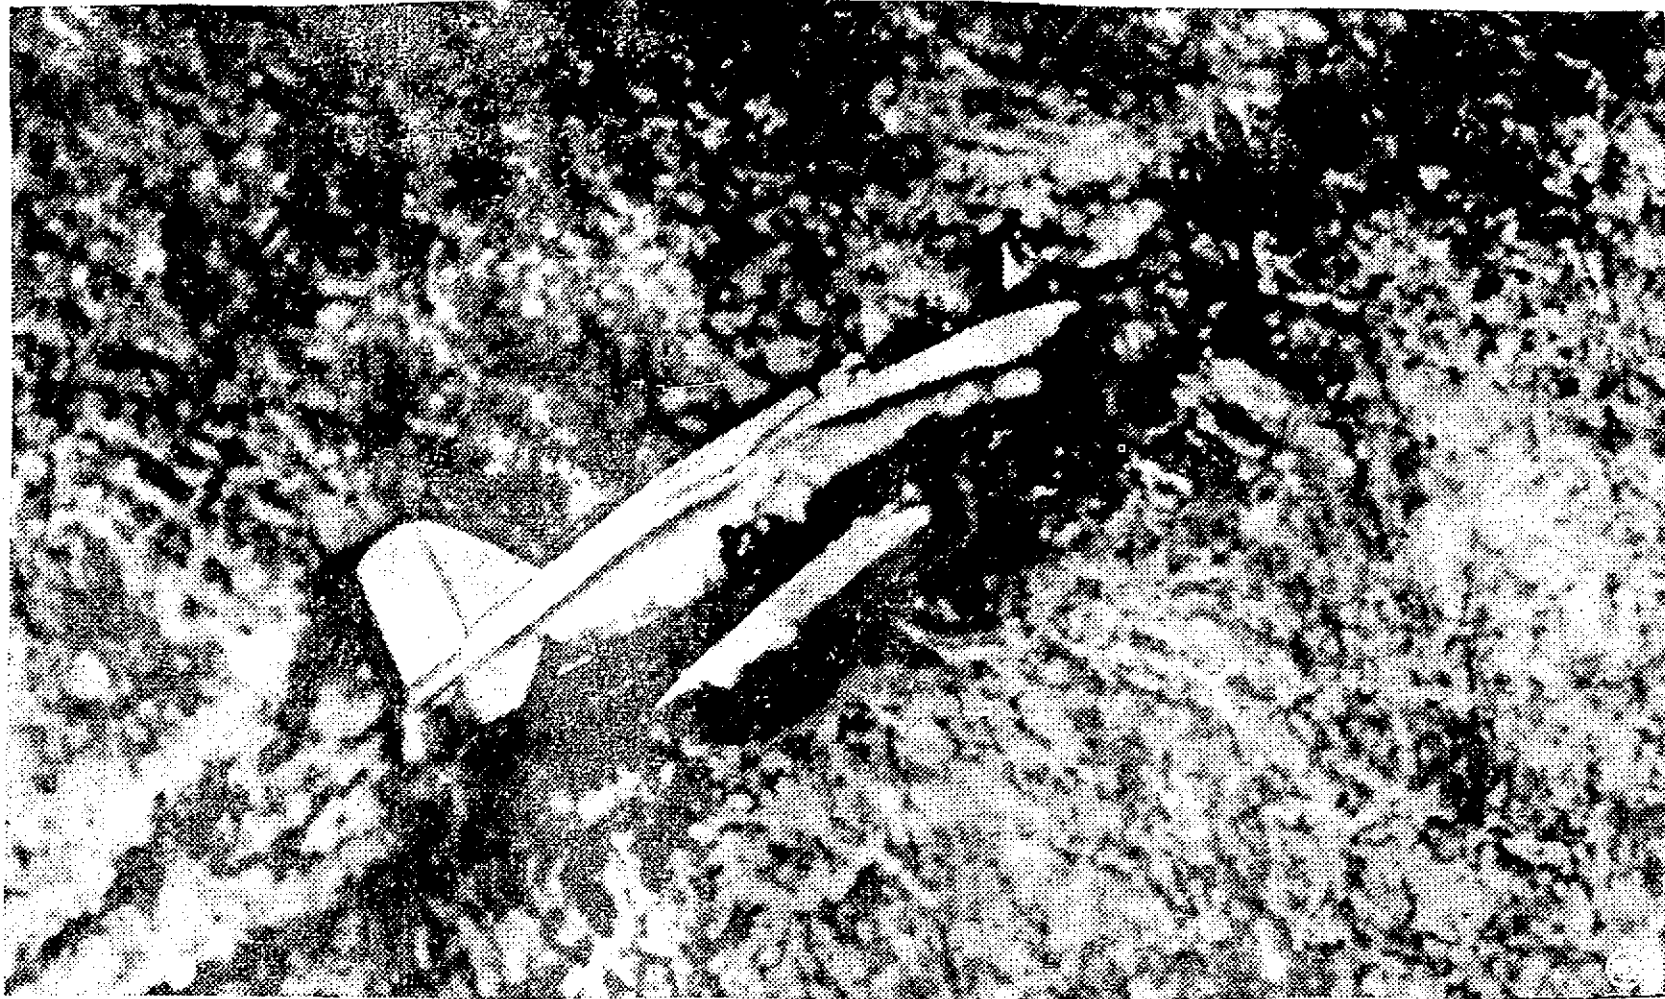

WARREN SCHOOL DIRECTORS HOLD MONTHLY MEET

With every member in attendance, the school board disposed of routine business at its regular November meeting held last evening.

As was predicted, the board refused the Russell Field fence material which was not according to blueprint specifications, being of 20 gauge instead of 18 and two inches too short. The work on the enclosure will be delayed until early next spring.

Airliner Carries Ten to Death in Mountainside Crash

Nosed into a forested mountainside 15 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah, is the wreckage of a United Airlines plane that crashed and killed the seven passengers and three crew members aboard.

Leona Peck, was reported by Solicitor A. C. Flick.

Superintendent Rossman reported that the defense training program was at a temporary standstill, awaiting the state allotment, but that he expected it to resume early next week. One hundred and fourteen men registered in the trade extension courses and 144 in the night school.

As is customary, the board granted permission to students holding hunting licenses to have one day excused absence during either the small game or deer season, provided they obtain their parents' consent and make arrangements to make up the work.

The medical examiner's report revealed 98 football candidates examined and three denied permission to participate in athletics because of physical disability. Miss Francis J. Ekey, dental hygienist, submitted a list of pupils needing dental attention, which was approved.

The Dragon Band was granted permission to participate in the Armistice Day exercises, and the rental of various rooms was arranged upon the petition of several organizations.

The firm of Rasmussen and Gutzler was authorized to install a collection tank on return lines in the Beatty school heating system at a cost of $200.

Those attending the meeting were President W. F. Clinger, Directors H. M. Mohr, R. W. Mackay, R. E. Brasington, Dr. W. M. Cashman, N. D. Paterson and M. G. Keller. Superintendent Rossman, Solicitor Flick and Miss Atkins, clerk.

MEMBER DRIVE TO BE STARTED BY LEGION POST

The annual membership drive of Chief Comptroller Post No. 133, American Legion, will open tomorrow night with a dinner at the Legion Home at 6:30. From tomorrow night until the final report on November 14th an intensive enrollment of new members will be made.

Nine teams of 10 men each, plus the officers of the post, will constitute the force behind the drive and it is hoped that by November 15th and local post will have reached, if not passed, its 1940 membership of 243 members.

Several other activities will occupy the attention of Legion members during the coming week. On Friday of this week the first of the annual turkey parties will be held at the Legion Home at 7:30. This will be purely a social evening to which all 1940 and new members are invited. A check up on membership will be made and after that sociability will be the keynote of the evening. A fish fry will climax the evening's entertainment.

On Sunday, November 10, the Legion will attend a patriotic service at the First Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock. Members are asked to meet at the Legion Home by 10:30 that they might march in a body to the church.

On Armistice Day the Legion will observe the day in a fitting manner. They will take part in the parade, scheduled for early in the morning, and at 11 o'clock will have charge of the exercises at the Soldiers' and Sailors' monument at the north approach of the Hickory street bridge.

Monday night, November 11th, the annual Armistice Day dinner will be held at the Legion Home. Reports on the membership drive will be received, the regular Legion meeting will be held and a social program will follow.

The officers of the post are particularly desirous that all team captains contact members of their team Wednesday so that there might be 100 per cent attendance at the dinner tomorrow night. In order that the membership drive may get away to a flying start.

It was a pleasure to be No. 158 in Washington, D. C., where registrants who held the initial draft tag were given gold pins in form of the numeral "one." Above, John Orme Thornberry, one of the 158s, receives his pin from a cluster of charming showgirls appearing at a local theater.

"Torpedo Terriers"—Watchdogs of the English Channel

While R. A. F. fighter planes resist German air attacks on England, and its bombers carry the Nazi invasion, the Royal Navy's tiny motor-torpedo boats maintain unceasing vigilance against a Nazi land invasion. Some of the speedy "torpedo terriers" are pictured on patrol in the choppy waters of the English Channel. Germans recently reported British speedboats sighted in an attempted attack on Nazi-held French coast under cover of Channel haze.

THOMAS COMMENT

New York, Nov. 5.—(P)—Norman Thomas, Socialist presidential candidate, cast his vote today with the observation that "this is the worst campaign in all by political memory and that goes for both old parties." "America still has a job ahead of her keeping out of war and also keeping Fascism out of America," he said.
